You are welcome in the worship, fellowship, and mission of the Church of the Nativity!

We pray that you may find welcome, grace, and hope in this sacred celebration. All who seek Christ in their lives are welcome to share in the bread and wine of the Eucharist.

We acknowledge with respect the history, spirituality, and culture of the Indigenous peoples with whom the Upper Canada Treaties were signed and who for centuries have offered care and stewardship for the territory wherein our parish resides.
We seek to live up to our responsibility as Treaty members.
We are gathered on the traditional territory of several Indigenous peoples, including the Neutrals, the Mississauga, the Anishnaabe and the Haudenosaunee, on territory shared under the Dish with One Spoon wampum treaty.
We also honour the heritage and gifts of Métis people.
May our actions be guided by our commitment to reconciliation.

Saint Mary the Virgin

The Holy Day we observe this morning has slightly different names and emphases in different traditions. Our Roman Catholic siblings celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary; our Orthodox relations, the Dormition of the BVM (closest to our old name, the Falling Asleep of the BVM); Lutherans, Mary the Mother of our Lord.
We have many different ways of thinking about Mary, but all alike are drawn to her saying yes to God, to her praise of God's actions of scattering the proud, lifting up the lowly, and feeding the hungry—as we are invited to say yes and join in God's work in the world.

Prelude

Music is offered to provide a time for quiet prayer and preparation.

Welcome

One The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.
All And also with you.

One All your works praise you, O Lord.
All And your faithful servants bless you.

Gracious God we thank you for feeding us
with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
May we, who share his body, live his risen life;
we, who drink his cup, bring life to others;
we, whom the Spirit lights, give light to the world.

Keep us firm in the hope you have set before us,
so that we and all your children shall be free,
and the whole earth live to praise your name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Homily

The Reverend Canon Matthew Griffin

Mary, and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honour, glory, and praise,
for ever and ever.

All (sung) Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Lord’s Prayer

One Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus teaches us in the language and version of our comfort:

All

Our Father
in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin
against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever.
Amen.

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who
trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

We keep silent and pray for a short time.

One Glory and honour and praise to you, holy and living God.
To deliver us from the power of sin and death
and to reveal the riches of your grace,
you looked with favour upon Mary,
your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to those living in poverty.

Jesus yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:
“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine.
Again he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said:
“Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with the Blessed Virgin

The Great Thanksgiving

Preface from Evangelical Lutheran Worship;
Canon from Enriching our Worship 1—Prayer 2 (TEC)

One May God be with you.

All And also with you.

One Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them up to God.

One Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

One It is indeed right, our duty and our joy,
that we should at all times and in all places
give thanks and praise to you,
almighty and merciful God,
through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

In the wonder and mystery
of the Word made flesh
you have opened the eyes of faith
to a new and radiant vision of your glory,
that, beholding the God made visible,
we may be drawn to love the God whom we cannot see.

And so, with all the choirs of angels,
with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

All

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.
